Overview of First Things First

On November 7, 2006, Arizonans made an historic decision on behalf of our state's youngest citizens. By majority vote, they made a commitment to all Arizona children 5 and younger, that children would have the tools they need to arrive at school healthy and ready to succeed. The voters backed that promise with an 80-cent per pack increase on tobacco products to provide dedicated and sustainable funding for early childhood services for our youngest children. The initiative created the statewide First Things First board and the 31 regional partnership councils that share the responsibility of ensuring that these early childhood funds are spent on strategies that will result in improved education and health outcomes for kids 5 and younger.

First Things First is designed to meet the diverse needs of Arizona communities. The regional councils are comprised of community volunteers, with each member representing a specific segment of the community that has a role in ensuring that Arizona's children grow up to be ready for school, set for life: parents, leaders of faith communities, tribal representatives, educators, health professionals, business leaders, and philanthropists.

First Things First Strategic Direction

FTF's commitment to young children means more than simply funding programs and services. It means having a shared vision about what being prepared for kindergarten actually means. First Things First specifies that programs and services funded by the FTF Board and Regional Partnership Councils are to address one or more of the following Goal Areas as defined by the statute:

- Improve the quality of early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase the access to quality early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase access to preventive health care and health screenings for children through age five.
- Offer parent and family support and education concerning early childhood development and literacy.
- Provide professional development and training for early childhood development and health providers.
- Increase coordination of early childhood development and health programs and provide public information about the importance of early childhood development and health.

The FTF Board established a strategic framework with a set of school readiness indicators that provide a comprehensive composite measure to show whether young children are ready for success as they prepare to enter kindergarten. The strategies funded by FTF work collectively to develop a comprehensive system across the state and regionally to address the school readiness indicators. The FTF Board and Regional Partnership Councils determine the priorities and strategies to be funded across the state and throughout the regions assessing the challenges and building on the resources and assets in place.

School Readiness Indicators

1. #/% children demonstrating school readiness at kindergarten entry in the development domains of social-emotional, language and literacy, cognitive, and motor and physical
2. #/% of children enrolled in an early care and education program with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
3. #/% of children with special needs enrolled in an inclusive early care and education program with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
4. #/% of families that spend no more than 10% of the regional median family income on quality care and education with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
5. % of children with newly identified developmental delays during the kindergarten year
6. # of children entering kindergarten exiting preschool special education to regular education
7. #/% of children ages 2-5 at a healthy weight (Body Mass Index-BMI)
8. #/% of children receiving timely well child visits
9. #/% of children age 5 with untreated tooth decay
10. % of families who report they are competent and confident about their ability to support their child's safety, health and well being

What is the Funding Source?

First Things First provides for distribution of funding through both statewide and regional grants. Statewide programs are considered those implemented across regional boundaries and are designed to benefit Arizona's children as a whole. Regional funding is based on the approval of the Regional Partnership Council funding plans submitted to the FTF Board each year.

This Request for Grant Application (RFGA) is specifically dedicated to funding regional programs. The Regional Partnership Councils involved in the release of this RFGA include:

- The Central Maricopa Regional Partnership Council
- The Southeast Maricopa Regional Partnership Council

Who is Eligible to Apply for this Funding Opportunity?

First Things First awards grants to:

- Non-profit 501 (c) (3) organizations providing services in Arizona (both secular and faith-based)
- Units of Arizona government (local, county and state entities as well as schools and school districts)
- Federally recognized Tribal governments or entities providing services within Arizona
- Arizona institutions of higher learning (colleges and universities)
- Private organizations providing services in Arizona

All potential Applicants must demonstrate organizational, fiscal and programmatic capacity to meet the requirements described in the scope of work listed in this RFGA.

What is the Total Funding Amount Available in this Request for Grant Application?

This is a twelve (12) month contract for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2013 with an option for renewal for two (2) additional twelve (12) month periods. Total funds available are approximately $4,600,000 for the first funding period. This includes $600,000 for services provided in the Central Maricopa Regional Partnership Council area and $4,000,000 for services in the Southeast Maricopa Regional Partnership Council area.

This is a multi-regional contract with funding available from Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions. Should a region discontinue participation during the program year or not seek renewal at the end of a grant period, adjustments in administrative costs, scope of work for direct services, and target service units may be adjusted.

First Things First reserves the right not to award the entire amount of available funds or to award an amount that is greater than the posted available funds. Renewal will be contingent upon satisfactory contract performance, evaluation and availability of funds.

Successful Applicant(s) must serve all participating Regional Partnership Council areas identified as participating in this Request for Grant Application (RFGA).

Please note funding amounts are related to decisions made by Regional Partnership Councils throughout the year and from year to year based on strategy decisions which may impact the amount of funding in this award. It is the responsibility of the successful applicant to ensure successful implementation across the regional areas in this RFGA independent of decisions made by each Regional Partnership Council throughout the year or from year to year. Regional funding is based on the approval of the Regional Partnership Council funding plans submitted to the FTF Board each year. It is estimated that one or multiple awards will be made for home visitation while one award will be made for centralized intake.

Scope of Work: What Will This Grant Fund and How Will It Make a Difference for Children?

Statement of Need

Needs and assets assessments of the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions have shown that parents and families of young children need access to information and education about child development and child health along with parent training and coaching that supports them to be their child's first teacher and to promote overall healthy family functioning. The regional needs and assets reports also revealed a great number of children who are not in regulated child care settings and may not otherwise be engaged in the early childhood system. Home visitation is often successful in reaching these families, allowing them to access valuable services and is often an entry point into the broader early childhood system for families. There is also a lack of capacity among available programs to meet the needs of eligible families in the two regions who may voluntarily choose to participate in addition to a limited geographic service area of available programs. In order to address these needs and fill the gaps in service capacity, the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa Regional Partnership Councils are seeking applicants to implement a home visitation strategy.

Research indicates that evidence based home visitation programs have been able to help families learn parenting skills, increase confidence in their skills, promote positive parent-child interactions and increase linkages with community services including health and social services. Family support is the foundation for enhancing children's positive social emotional development¹ and can help parents in supporting their child's language development and self-regulation abilities; both predictors of later school success. Parents and families need education and support to understand child development and health and to develop parenting skills as well as have access to resources to be the best parents possible.

A variety of home visitation program models exist and differ in many technical aspects, such as the target population, the experience and credentials of the home visitor, the duration and intensity of the visits, and the end goal or focus of the intervention. Yet, the common ground that unites home visitation program models is the importance placed on the parent and family's pivotal role in shaping their children's lives and preparing them for school. Often the best way to reach families with young children is by bringing services to their front door. Through home visitation, parents can strengthen their competence and confidence in their daily activities and interactions with their infant, toddler or preschooler while reducing isolation as families are made aware of and are connected to community resources and early learning opportunities for their young child.

Evidence based home visitation models generally provide information and education about child development while training parents and families on developmentally appropriate parenting practices and skills. Research on home visitation indicates positive impacts such as increases in parent knowledge and improvements in attitudes toward parenting. Some models are also associated with changes in parent-child interactions as demonstrated in the reduction of rates of abuse and neglect. Home visitation can also promote maternal and child health. For example, very young teen mothers and mothers who smoke demonstrated decreases in pre-term births and decreased percentages in low birth weight when enrolled and participating in a program that included health information and supports prior to the baby's birth. The body of home visitation research also suggests an impact upon the child's development when models promote early language and emergent literacy (Deanna S. Gomby, 2003). Understanding that early learning takes place within the context of relationships and that parents and families are their children's first and foremost teachers, evidence based home visitation can positively impact school readiness by strengthening parent-child relationships and increasing parents' knowledge of child development and health so that they can best support their child's growth and development.

Description of strategy including Standards of Practice

Comprehensive, evidence based home visitation programs provide participating families of children under five with information and education on parenting, child development and health topics while assisting with connections to other resources or programs as needed. A variety of evidence based models exist to address the spectrum of universal needs to targeted or specialized needs of particular populations such as first time parents, teen parents, families at-risk for abuse-neglect, low income families. While programs can strengthen parent-child relationships throughout the early childhood years, targeted recruitment, enrollment and participation of families expecting their first child or who have a newborn can have the greatest, long term impact. "The first three years of life are a period of intense intellectual development during which the brain forms a foundation for later learning and development. High quality home visiting programs can be an effective service delivery method to support early learning in these years, ensuring that children succeed in school and beyond." (Home Visiting Brief, 2009)

Home visiting professionals trained in child development and family support make regular, scheduled visits to each family's home or other natural environments such as the library. Home visitors meet with the family and their young child or with a family expecting a child, to answer questions, provide information and resources, support and advise parents on parenting skills or assist in early detection of any developmental problems in the young child. The specialized skills and qualifications of home visitors are critical to the successful implementation of home visitation programs. Home visitors build trusting, professional relationships with each family. They observe daily routines and interactions to help parents identify and interpret their child's cues and offer information, guidance and coaching so that families can best support and be responsive to their own child's growth and development.

Family participation in a home visitation program is voluntary, with no fee for service to families. A family-centered approach is utilized with consideration for each child's present level of development; parent/families' knowledge and understanding of child development including social emotional, language and literacy, cognitive, physical and motor development; current parenting practices; daily routines and interactions; or other information/instructional needs.

Young children learn through the natural interaction of caregiving and everyday experiences. Early and rapid development of the components of language, including listening and understanding, communicating and speaking, and the emergence of early literary skills and abilities is evident in infancy and toddlerhood and families play the most critical role in supporting as their child's first and most important teacher. As infants and toddlers develop their ability to understand and use language to communicate, they also increase their skills and abilities in influencing others, which in turn affects their learning in all other domains. It is important that home visitation programs support each family with their young child's early language and literacy development in the context of social emotional development. A strong foundation in these critical areas of development can lead to good outcomes in other areas including cognitive, physical and motor development.

The greater the needs and risk levels of the family, the greater the frequency and duration of home visits. Some home visitation models provide for weekly home visits, and can include parent-child playgroups located in community settings. Successful Applicants will implement programs that:

- ✓ Provide information and training for parents that will assist them in improving the skills to be their child's first teacher and strengthen parent-child relationships.
- ✓ Provide information or training on developmentally appropriate learning opportunities that support early language and literacy development which prepares children for success in school and life.
- ✓ Implement the program model in accordance with the First Things First Home Visitation Standards of Practice, Developmental and Sensory Screening Standards of Practice and the Child Protective Services (CPS) Policy. Refer to Exhibits A, B and C.

As part of Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa's implementation of this multiregional Home Visitation strategy, an additional coordination opportunity is being made available to qualified applicants. The Central and Southeast Maricopa regions are requesting qualified applicants to apply to take the lead on the implementation of a central intake system within the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions as part of this strategy. The successful applicant will be responsible for outreach and recruitment of families and also facilitate the referral process to providers and match families of young children with the most appropriate home visiting program. By processing all referrals through a single agency, the Councils' intent is there will be increased coordination among programs, limiting duplication of services, and improving the utilization of available resources. Implementation of a central intake system can eliminate home visiting programs competing for referrals with other programs and families receiving services from multiple agencies simultaneously. This system approach helps to minimize these problems and builds positive interagency relationships and collaboration.

Successful applicants who deliver home visitation programs will be required to participate in and coordinate with the centralized intake system that will facilitate referrals to providers and match families with the appropriate home visiting program. It is intended to simplify and streamline the referral process for providers and families. All providers will use a uniform screening and referral form to initiate referrals through the system and central intake will be the hub for these referrals.

The centralized intake grantee will take the lead on implementing this system within the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions. By processing all referrals through a single provider there will be increased coordination among programs that builds positive interagency relationships and collaboration.

First Things First School Readiness Indicators related to this strategy:

FTF is seeking successful applicants to implement this strategy and work collectively with FTF to impact the school readiness indicators below:

- #/% children demonstrating school readiness at kindergarten entry in the development domains of social-emotional, language and literacy, cognitive, and motor and physical
- #/% of children receiving timely well child visits
- % of families who report they are competent and confident about their ability to support their child's safety, health and well being

First Things First Goal Area to be addressed:

- Family Support and Literacy

Target Population to serve

Both the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa Regional Partnership Councils understand that home visitation is most impactful with new parents and at-risk families of infants and toddlers. It is important to reach and support families through home visitation as early as possible. Ideally, home visitation programs begin prenatally and with new parents or at-risk families with their newborns and continually support the family from infancy into toddlerhood. In the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions, home visitation services will be available to all pregnant women and families with children ages birth to three with a target population of families with risk factors such as single-parent homes, low income families, teen parents, grandparents raising grandchildren, or refugees. Due to the unique needs of families living in the Town of Guadalupe, families will be recruited specifically from that community and a slightly different program model may be needed.

Geographic Area

Applicants responding to this RFGA must provide services throughout the Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa regions.

The Central Maricopa Regional Partnership Council provides services within the communities of Tempe, Chandler, Guadalupe and Ahwatukee, including the zip codes associated with those cities - 85044, 85045, 85048, 85224, 85225, 85226, 85227, 85244, 85246, 85248, 85249, 85280, 85281, 85282, 85283, 85284, 85285, 85286, 85287, and 85289.

The Southeast Maricopa Regional Partnership Council provides services to the communities of Mesa, Gilbert and Maricopa County incorporated areas of Queen Creek, including the zip codes associated with those cities: 85201, 85202, 85203, 85204, 85205, 85206, 85207, 85208, 85209, 85210, 85211, 85212, 85213, 85215, 85216, 85220-3383, 85233, 85234, 85236, 85274, 85275, 85277, 85295, 85296, 85297, 85298 and 85299. The region does not include: the portion of Salt

River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community in 85256; the portion of Apache Junction in Maricopa County; or the portion of the Gila River Indian Community in Maricopa County.

Applicants responding to this RFGA must provide services throughout all participating Regional Partnership Council geographic areas.

Coordination and Collaboration

First Things First prioritizes coordination and collaboration among early childhood service providers as critical to developing a seamless service delivery system for children and families. As a result of coordination and collaboration, services are often easier to access and are implemented in a manner that is more responsive to the needs of the children and families. Coordination and collaboration may also result in greater capacity to deliver services because organizations are working together to identify and address gaps in service. Successful Applicants must demonstrate capacity to work with and participate in coordination and collaboration activities occurring within the First Things First region being served. This may include but is not limited to participating in regular meetings. Depending upon the strategy, there may be additional statewide meetings which the Applicant may be asked to attend, as noted in the Scope of Work. In order to accomplish this, Applicants should plan the appropriate staffing and budget to support travel to and attendance at monthly meetings within the regional area or statewide meetings, as appropriate.

Program Specific Data Collection and First Things First Evaluation

Successful Applicants agree to participate in the FTF evaluation and any program specific evaluation or research efforts. Data collection and FTF evaluation activities are directly connected with the Goals, Performance Measures and Units of Service aligned to the strategy described in this RFGA. When services are provided to more than one region (multi-regional strategies), the grantee must collect and store the client data for each region served through the grant agreement.

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number Definition:

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number). A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service or product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. The Target Service Number represents the number of units (e.g. target population) proposed to be served or number of products or services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For the FTF strategy Home Visitation the FTF Unit of Service is “number of families served” and a Target Service Number represents the number of families the Applicant proposes to serve during the contract period. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for this strategy specific Unit of Service.

Performance Measures Definition:

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g. serving families or children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g., providing scholarships).

Successful Applicants must have the capacity to collect and submit FTF data requirements, securely and confidentially store client data, and utilize data to assess progress in achieving desired outcomes of the proposed strategy. Units of Service, Target Service Numbers, and Performance Measures outline how quarterly data submissions will be evaluated according to the contracted deliverables and standards of practice for that contract. Additionally, they are used by FTF to determine the key impacts of the strategies, programs and approaches being implemented.

All successful Applicants will be provided with data reporting requirements by FTF and will meet the requirements of the FTF evaluation including, but not limited to, timely and regular reporting and cooperation with all FTF evaluation activities. Timely and regular reporting of all performance and evaluation data includes the electronic submission of data (as identified in data reporting templates designed for each strategy) through the FTF secure web portal known as PGMS. (The FTF data reporting requirements for this strategy can be found at: <http://www.azftf.gov/pages/WebMain.aspx?PageId=9E8669C97C0C408B9F3567C855744398&StrategyId=17>)

Successful Applicants are required to collaborate with the FTF external evaluation, which means the successful Applicant must collaborate with external evaluation-led child assessment activities. Collaborative activities may include tracking and reporting data pertaining to participant attendance, enrollment, and demographic information. In addition, Applicants agree to allow FTF and evaluation consultants of FTF to observe program activities on site and successful applicants must collaborate with FTF led and initiated evaluation activities to encourage parent consent for data collection. (Standards for data security for this strategy are found in Exhibit F)

Units of Service and Performance Measures that are aligned to the Goal for the purposes of this RFGA are as follows:

Unit of Service:

- 1,757 families served (Central Maricopa 257 families served, Southeast Maricopa 1,500 families served)

Performance Measures:

- Number of families served/proposed service number
- Home visitor caseload

- Family attrition
- Number of families receiving referrals for health insurance enrollment
- Number of referrals for community based services given to participating families
- Number of children receiving home visiting services
- Number of children receiving developmental screening
- Numbers of children receiving referrals for follow up services

The budget and budget narrative should provide a clear and concise explanation of the methods used to determine the amounts for each line item in the proposed program budget. All budget forms must be signed by an authorized agency representative.

Provide one budget and in the narrative, provide information that clearly articulates how the funding is used in each region: Central Maricopa and Southeast Maricopa.

If applying for both the central intake system and providing home visitation services, provide specifics about how you determined the funding levels for the intake system separately from the home visitation services. It is the expectation of both regions that the central intake system provider will also be responsible for outreach, recruitment and referrals for all participating home visitation providers. It is also the expectation of both regions that home visitation targeted service units will be served with the majority of the funding; i.e., a majority of proposed expenditures is for the delivery of the home visitation services.

- a) Submit the Funds Requested Form (Attachment D). No additional narrative is required.
- b) Submit the Line Item Budget (Attachment E) using only the budget categories listed on the form. No additional narrative is required.
- c) Submit the Budget Narrative (Attachment F) using only the budget categories listed on the form.
- d) Submit the Disclosure of Other Funding (Attachment G). This list should include all other sources of funding currently received from other State or public agencies, Federal agencies, non-profit organizations and other sources that will be applied to the proposed program/strategy(ies). Note that statute A.R.S. §8-1183 provides for a prohibition on supplanting of state funds by First Things First expenditures, meaning that no FTF monies expended are to be used to take the place of any existing state or federal funding for early childhood development and health programs.
- e) Describe your organization's business management system by completion of the Financial Systems Survey. Attach the Financial Systems Survey (Attachment H) to capture basic financial system/operational information to assess financial capacity early in the process. No additional narrative is required. As noted in the financial system survey, you are required to submit a complete copy of the most recent audited, reviewed or compiled financial statements as well as management letters and a schedule showing the TOTAL federal funds (by granting agency) expended by your agency for the most recent fiscal year. NOTE THAT ONLY ONE COPY OF EACH OF THESE DOCUMENTS NEEDS TO BE INCLUDED WITH THE APPLICATION MARKED "ORIGINAL".

F. Data Collection (15%)

Describe in this section the plan and resources necessary to meet FTF basic reporting requirements, maintain data securely and confidentially, and ensure that ongoing data collection is used within the grantee institution to ensure fidelity and overall effectiveness. In this section, include discussion of:

- a) Who will have overall responsibility for the data collection, maintenance, and reporting? Be sure to include this person in your Key Personnel Overview, Attachment B.
- b) How will the required data be collected, maintained, and aggregated? Describe how you will ensure that data entered into the First Things First web-based database after it has been collected is accurate and timely. Describe what procedures will be in place to assure the quality of your data (e.g., training for data collectors, oversight of data entry, timeliness for administering tools, etc.)?
- c) If applicable, what is the anticipated approval process to collect and report data from tribal government programs?
- d) What resources (e.g., personnel, supplies, computer, etc.) will be needed to complete necessary activities related to data collection, maintenance, and security as well as the assurance of quality data input and data collection for the program? In addition to this narrative description, the funds dedicated to evaluation should be reflected in the budget and budget narrative in Section D above.
- e) Complete the Data Collection Form, Attachment I.

A. Inquiries

1. Duty to Examine. It is the responsibility of each Applicant to examine the entire RFGA, seek clarification in writing (inquiries), and examine its' Application for accuracy before submitting the Application. Lack of care in preparing an Application shall not be grounds for modifying or withdrawing the Application after the Application due date and time, nor shall it give rise to any Contract claim.
2. RFGA Contact Person. Any inquiry related to an RFGA, including any requests for or inquiries regarding standards referenced in the RFGA shall be directed solely to the RFGA contact person. The Applicant shall not contact or direct inquiries concerning this RFGA to any other State employee unless the RFGA specifically identifies a person other than the RFGA contact person as a contact.

Electronic inquiries are acceptable. First Things First shall consider the relevancy of the inquiry but is not required to respond in writing.

4. Timeliness. Any inquiry or exception to the RFGA shall be submitted as soon as possible and should be submitted at least seven days before the Application due date and time for review and determination by First Things First. An Applicant may not rely on any verbal responses to questions at the Conference. Material issues raised at the Conference that result in changes to the RFGA shall be answered solely through a formal written RFGA amendment. Attendance at the Pre-Application Conference is strongly encouraged, but not mandatory.
8. Persons with Disabilities. Persons with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter, by contacting the RFGA contact person. Requests shall be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation.

Any exceptions not included in such a section shall be without force and effect in any resulting Contract unless such exception is specifically accepted by the Fiscal and Contracts Specialist in a written statement. The Applicant's preprinted or standard terms will not be considered by First Things First as a part of any resulting Contract. Attachment E and F Instructions

How to Complete the Line Item Budget and Budget Narrative

Complete a 12-month budget for the period July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013 using the template provided in Attachment E. Please make sure you include a budget narrative as Attachment F.

Please keep in mind items described in a line item budget and in more detail in the budget narrative should describe how the costs were determined and the public purpose for the cost related successfully implementing the project. Please assure that all requested funds follow these guidelines:

- Be necessary and reasonable for proper and efficient performance and administration of First Things First funds.
- Be authorized or not prohibited under State or local laws or regulations.
- Be consistent with policies, regulations, and procedures that apply uniformly to all costs charged and expended by the agency – consistent treatment of costs.
 - For example – a cost may not be assigned to another grant award as an indirect cost if any other cost incurred for the same purposes in like circumstances has been allocated to the First Things First award as a direct cost.
 - For example – a cost for a certain type of expense is charged one rate to another source of funding and a different rate to First Things First - this would not be consistent treatment of costs.
- Be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Be adequately documented.
- All travel related costs for these trainings and meetings should be included in the Applicant's budget and calculated using the State of Arizona travel rate limitations for mileage, per diem and lodging as described on the budget narrative worksheet. For more information about the state requirements, visit <http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/>.
- Requests for line item modifications, which do not change the total program funding, shall be requested in writing and shall only be made following receipt of written authorization from First Things First.

Please note the line items included in the budget template represent the types of costs possible for a line item budget these line items may or may not be applicable or appropriate for your Application. Your budget line items requested must fit within one of the categories listed. However, it is expected that you would not need to utilize all of the sample line items.

Please verify that the narrative and budget form correspond and the calculations and totals are accurate. Please include one narrative that matches the 12-month line item budget categories and subcategories.

Personnel Services: Include information such as position title(s), name of employee (if known), salary, time to be spent on this program (hours or %), number of months assigned to this program, etc. Explain how the salary rate for each position was determined. If salaries are expected to increase during the project year, indicate the percentage increases for each position and justify the percent of the salary increase. Also, be sure to include the scheduled salary increases on the Budget Form.

Employee Related Expenses: Include a benefit percentage and what expenses make up employee benefit costs. Indicate any special rates for part-time employees, if applicable. Explain how the benefits for each position were determined. If using a fringe benefit rate, explain how this percentage is justified or approved by your agency.

Travel: Separate travel that is in-state and out-of-state. Include a detailed breakdown of hotel, transportation, meal costs, etc. Indicate the location(s) of travel, the justification for travel, how many employees will attend and how the estimates have been determined. Explain the relationship of each cost item to the project (e.g., if training or training expenses are requested, explain the topic of the training and its relationship to the project). Applicants must use the State of Arizona Travel Policy on rates limitations for mileage, lodging, and meals (<http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/>) for both in-state and out-of-state travel.

Aid to Organizations or Individuals: In the event that this application represents collaboration and the contract will be utilizing other sub grantees or subcontractors to perform various components of the program, include a list of sub grantees, programmatic work each sub grantee will perform, and how costs for each sub grantee are determined.

All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. All items should be categorized in the following categories: Telephones / Communications Services, Internet Access, General Office Supplies, Food, Rent/Occupancy, Evaluation (non-contracted and non-personnel expenses), Utilities, Furniture, Postage, Software (including IT supplies), Dues/Subscriptions, Advertising, Printing/Copying, Equipment Maintenance, Professional Development/Staff Training, Conference Workshops/ Training Fees for Staff, Insurance, Program Materials, Program Supplies, Scholarships, and Program Incentives*

Non-Capital Equipment: For items with a unit cost less than $5,000 and an initial estimated useful life beyond a single year, explain each item to be purchased, how the costs were determined and justify the need for the items. All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. For example, items such as computers, printers, projectors, etc. each with a unit cost less than $5,000.

Administrative/Indirect Costs: Administrative costs are general or centralized expenses of overall administration of an organization that receives grant funds and does not include particular program costs. For organizations that have an established federally approved indirect cost rate for Federal awards, indirect costs mean those costs that are included in the organization's indirect cost rate. Such costs are generally identified with the organization's overall operation and are further described in 2 CFR 220, 2 CFR 225, and 2 CFR 230.

Applicants must list either Option A or Option B and provide proper justification for expenses included:

- ☐ Option A - Administrative Costs: with proper justification, sub grantees may include an allocation for administrative costs for up to 10% of the total direct costs requested of the grant request. Administrative costs may include allocable direct charges for: costs of financial, accounting, auditing, contracting or general legal services; costs of internal evaluation, including overall organization's management improvement costs; and costs of general liability insurance that protects the organization(s) responsible for operating a project, other than insurance costs solely attributable to the project. Administrative costs may also include that portion of salaries and benefits of the project's director and other administrative staff not attributable to the time spent in support of a specific project.

OR

- ☐ Option B - Federally Approved Indirect Costs: *If your organization has a federally approved indirect cost rate agreement in place, grantees may include an allocation for indirect costs for up to 10% of the direct costs. Applicants must provide a copy of their federally approved indirect cost rate agreement.

Indirect costs are costs of an organization that are not readily assignable to a particular project, but are necessary to the operation of the organization and the performance of the project. The cost of operating and maintaining facilities, depreciation, and administrative salaries are examples of the types of costs that are usually treated as indirect.

Standards of Practice Home Visitation

I. Strategy Description

Parents and families play a pivotal role in shaping their children's lives and preparing them for school. Often the best way to reach families with young children is by bringing services to their front door. Comprehensive, evidence-based home visitation programs provide participating families of infants and toddlers with information and education on parenting, child development and health topics while assisting with connections to other resources or programs as needed. An evidence-based home visitation program is implemented in response to findings from a needs assessment that includes home visiting as a primary service delivery strategy (excluding programs with infrequent or supplemental home visiting), and is offered on a voluntary basis to families expecting a baby or families with infants or toddlers.

An evidence-based home visitation program is defined as:

- existing for at least three years,
- research-based, grounded in relevant empirically-based knowledge,
- linked to program determined outcomes,
- associated with a national organization or institution of higher education with comprehensive home visitation program standards that ensure high quality service delivery and continuous program quality improvement,
- demonstrated significant, sustained positive outcomes per required model benchmarks and participant outcomes when evaluated using well-designed and rigorous, randomized controlled research designs and,
- results are published in a peer-reviewed journal, or from quasi-experimental research designs, or the model must conform to a promising and new approach which achieves the required benchmarks and participant outcomes that should be grounded in empirical work and have an articulated theory of change.

A variety of evidence-based models exist to address the spectrum of universal needs to targeted or specialized needs of particular populations such as first time parents, teen parents, families at-risk for abuse-neglect, or low income families. The experience and credentials of the home visitor, the duration and intensity of the visits, and the end goal or focus of the intervention are critical to implementation and intended impacts. Yet, the common ground that unites home visitation program models is the importance placed on infant and toddler development.

In coordination and collaboration with community-based services, voluntary home visitation programs educate families and bring them up-to-date information about health, child development and school readiness, and connect them to critical services. Home visitation is a bridge that links the resources of the community with the safety of the home environment to reduce isolation, empowering even hard-to-reach parents to build a better future for themselves and their children. For example, home visitors directly impact early language and emergent literacy development and parent-child interactions by communicating the importance of reading daily to infants and toddlers and through individualized service provision. They provide families with the information, education, coaching and modeling to establish daily reading activities and literacy rich home environments which promote infants' positive associations with books and other print materials thereby supporting language acquisition. Daily reading activities also impact social-emotional development by strengthening the bond and interactions between parents and their infants and toddlers. As part of service provision, home visitors regularly inform families of the services available in their local community such as those available through public libraries. Through referral and coordination of services, home visitors can bridge daily reading activities and the availability of books and other print material within a family's home to those activities and programs available through the public libraries and elsewhere in the broader community; altogether reinforcing the importance of families' daily reading activities with infants and toddler resulting in positive early childhood outcomes and school readiness. (Peifer, 2011)

It is expected that home visitation programs funded by First Things First will be comprehensive for the families they serve and will be offered at no-cost, on a voluntary basis. Programs are also expected to minimize duplication of home visitation services for families.

II. Standards of Practice

A. Implementation Standards

1. Family centered and strengths-based approach:

- Conduct awareness, outreach and enrollment activities for eligible families who are expecting a baby or who have a newborn or infant child, older infants or toddlers.
- Engage families in assessment of their strengths and needs particularly around the following areas: parental resilience; social connections; knowledge of parenting and child development; concrete support in times of need; and children's social-emotional development.
- Assist families in the development and implementation of a family service plan, which includes specific goals and objectives based upon assessment findings, and future planning for transition from the home visitation program as appropriate.
- Ensure children receive developmental screening, preferably during well-child visits at 9, 18 and 24 months of age and every six months thereafter, or at any other time there are concerns about developmental delays, for all of the following developmental domains: social-emotional, language and communication – including emergent literacy, cognitive, physical and motor development. If the home visitor is conducting the developmental screening at recommended age-intervals, the First Things First Developmental Screening Standards of Practice must be followed.

- Assist families in developing skills related to observing and understanding their child's ongoing growth and developmental progress.
 - Connect families with the most appropriate provider and/or agency when developmental or health related concerns are noted. This includes:
 - parent's understanding and ability to read their infant's subtle cues
 - reasonable expectations for infant and toddler behavior
 - Provide resource and referral information - identify services available to families and the subsidies to which they may be entitled; help them to fill out the forms to gain those services; and help the families to follow through to ensure service delivery, as needed.
 - Assist parents to learn how to advocate for their children within a variety of settings, including school, child care and human service agencies.
 - Provide service coordination with other community resources to minimize duplication and to ensure that families receive comprehensive services as needed.
2. Information, education and coaching on each of the core areas: knowledge of parenting and child development, health, parental resilience, social connections, and concrete support mechanisms. Information and support is tailored to the needs of the family, and identified in the family service plan. This includes:
- All domains of child development (social-emotional, language and communication – including emergent literacy, cognitive, physical and motor development), including understanding when to have concerns related to children's development; and
 - A focus on early language and literacy:
 - Inform and educate parents and families on typical early language and emergent literacy development for infants and toddlers.
 - Literacy coaching and instruction should be woven into the activities of all program components; presented and practiced in contexts that are meaningful to families' lives and needs.
 - Training for parents regarding how to be the primary teacher for their children and full partners in the education of their children.
 - Actively engage parents in learning how everyday experiences can nurture the language and literacy development of their children.
 - Support parents in maintaining a literacy-rich home environment.
 - Appropriate child-adult interactions and development of parenting skills (i.e., physical touch, positive discipline, early language and literacy experiences and verbal and visual communications).
 - Health (e.g., nutrition; obesity; breastfeeding; physical activity; immunizations; oral health; insurance enrollment; participation in consistent medical/dental homes; participation in prenatal care; safety; developmental health; vision and hearing screening).
 - Identify their natural support systems such as peers.

- Home visitation programs may also engage families through the facilitation, arrangement or organization of community-based group activities to further enhance socialization and peer support.
3. Service delivery is based upon a culture of trust and respect.
- Create a family-centered approach and environment.
 - Home visitors are from the community and have extensive knowledge of community resources.
 - Structure activities compatible with the family's availability and accessibility.
 - Demonstrate genuine interest in and concern for families.
 - Clearly define program objectives with the families upon enrollment; understanding what the program will accomplish helps families become fully engaged in program services.
 - Create opportunities for formal and informal feedback regarding services delivered and act upon it; ensure that input shapes decision-making.
 - Encourage open, honest communication.
 - Maintain confidentiality; be respectful of family members and protective of their legal rights.
 - Support the growth and development of all family members; encourage families to be resources for themselves and others.
 - Encourage family members to build upon their strengths.
 - Reflect the commitment to effectively serve the identified target population with an emphasis on fathers and grandparent caregivers, through publicity/outreach, literature and staff training.
 - Help families identify and acknowledge informal networks of support and community resources.
 - Create opportunities to enhance parent-child and peer relationships.
 - Strengthen parent and staff skills to advocate for themselves within institutions and agencies.
4. Programs are flexible and continually responsive to emerging family and community issues while ensuring model fidelity.
- Be accessible for families. Offer extended service hours including weekend/evening hours.
 - Engage families as partners to ensure that the program is beneficial. Families have regular input and feedback in programmatic planning to meet their needs.
 - Develop a collaborative, coordinated response to community needs.
5. Evaluation and monitoring is a collaborative, ongoing process that includes input from staff, families, program administrators, and community members.
- Programs must demonstrate mechanisms to assess program effectiveness and to implement quality improvements. Programs must participate in data collection and reporting of performance measures to First Things First.

B. Staffing Standards

1. The length of employment and experience/education are reflective of high quality staff. Home visitors are required to have a minimum of a Bachelor's degree in early childhood development, education, family studies, social work, nursing or a closely related field, unless a specific, evidence-based program model is implemented through lay-persons such as a promotora model of service delivery.
2. Wages and benefits are adequate for supporting high quality staff.
3. Assessment of home visitors' skills and abilities. Home visitors must be able to engage families while maintaining professional boundaries.
4. Prior to serving families, staff must have professional training or have participated in development opportunities to ensure a level of competency in service delivery.
5. Home visitors receive ongoing staff development/training to ensure program quality and give staff an opportunity to develop professionally.
6. Provide ongoing staff development/training on the First Things First Home Visitation Standards of Practice principles and other required Standards of Practice as appropriate. Staff includes supervisors, direct service staff, volunteers and sub-grantee or partner personnel implementing the strategy.
7. Supervisors and home visitation staff (including supervisors, direct service staff, volunteers and sub-grantee or partner personnel implementing the strategy) will have access to and receive training on the utilization of the Arizona Infant and Toddler Developmental Guidelines (January 2012).
8. Staff will receive training and information regarding mandatory reporting. Arizona law requires home visitation staff who suspect that a child has received a non-accidental injury or has been neglected, to report their concerns to Child Protective Services or local law enforcement (ARS §13-3620.A).
9. Supervisors should work with home visitation program staff to prepare and implement professional development plans.
10. Establish supervision as a collaborative process with mechanisms that support staff in difficult situations and provides ongoing opportunities for discussion between staff members and supervisors to reflect and debrief. Supervision will also include observation. It is important that supervisors spend time with home visitors in the field to have a sense of how the service is being delivered. This will help supervisors and staff to identify coaching and mentoring opportunities.
11. A confidential case file is maintained for each family. This file will include documentation such as contact notes, intake, assessment or screening tools and the service plan. Programs will ensure quality of service provision through regular case file reviews.
12. All First Things First Home Visitation Standards of Practice are modeled in all activities including planning, governance, and administration.
13. To ensure quality services, caseload size for each staff person is based upon:
 - How many hours per week the home visitor works; and
 - Family need and intensity of services provided (for example, for families with high risk or multiple risk factors, frequency and intensity of programming can increase to allow for more time to build relationships, modify maladaptive behaviors or

- attitudes, or practice newly learned parenting skills); and
- Where each family lives.
For example; 20 families is the maximum caseload for a home visitor working entirely in homes with families assessed as median to high risk or with multiple risk factors, at one visit per week. When assessing caseload size, first and foremost, grantees must adhere to standards set by the program model. Additionally, geographic proximity/ travel time to families served, duration and intensity of visits and documentation requirements should be considered for manageable caseload sizes.
 - Evidence-based program model fidelity
14. Establish an effective, consistent supervisory system that provides support for all staff members and ensures accountability to participants, funders, and the community.
 15. All staff work as a team, modeling respectful relationships.
 16. Build a team of staff who is consistent with program goals and whose top priority is the well-being of families and children.

III. Cultural Competency

Affirm, strengthen and promote families' cultural, racial and linguistic identities and enhance their ability to function in a multicultural society.

- Create opportunities for families of different backgrounds to identify areas of common ground and to accept and value differences between them.
- Hire staff who reflect the cultural and ethnic experiences and language of the families with whom they work and integrate their expertise into the entire program.
- To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner- a manner compatible with their cultural beliefs and practices and preferred language. Early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers should ensure that staff at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Early childhood practitioners/early childhood service providers should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement to ensure that services are delivered in a manner that is consistent with the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services and/or the National Recommendations on Cultural and Linguistic Competence for the National Association for the Education of Young Children.”
<http://minorityhealth.hhs.gov/templates/browse.aspx?lvl=2&lvlID=15>
<http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/linguistic>
- Service providers should understand individual Tribes/Nations are distinct and separate communities from other Tribes/Nations and their governmental systems and structures are not reflective of each other. Services to Tribal communities and on reservations must be provided in a manner compatible with the Tribe's/Nation's cultural beliefs and practices, to include the preferred language of the community. Services must also be provided in accordance with the Tribe's/Nation's laws, policies and procedures. The effectiveness of services is directly related to the provider's consideration of the beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation.

- Service providers can obtain information about providing services on tribal lands from a variety of sources. These include the FTF Regional Director, Regional Council members, tribal websites and publications, as well as official representatives of the Tribe/Nation such as the governing body, standing committees and authorized departments. It is highly recommended that service providers seek guidance from one or more of these sources before initiating services on reservations. Failure to do so could result in contraventions of cultural beliefs, Tribal laws or sovereignty.
- Programs will demonstrate their ability to operate within these parameters through prior experience working with Tribes/Nations, demonstrating that staff are culturally competent, partnerships with agencies serving Native American families, knowledge of cultural beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation or a combination of these elements.
- Related to data collection, evaluation or research activities:
 - In the United States, Native American Tribes are considered autonomous nations with all of the rights and responsibilities of a nation. Understanding this, Native American Tribes are charged with protecting the health and safety of their people. To this end, Tribes have full ownership over any data collected within their reservation boundaries. This means that Tribes can allow or not allow any program to collect data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities on the reservation.

Any grantee implementing programs in tribal communities must have official tribal permission to collect and utilize sensitive data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities.

Standards of Practice Developmental and Sensory Screening Administration Services

I. Description of Strategy Health Issue

As part of a comprehensive system of services to families, there is a need for additional services to screen and identify children who may have developmental delays or sensory (hearing, vision) problems. Many children who have spent time in a neonatal intensive care unit (NICU), and who may have had health problems when they were born, have a greater risk for developmental delays and require additional screening.

Many children with behavioral or developmental disabilities and sensory deficits miss important opportunities for early detection and intervention due to gaps in screening and availability of services. Delays in language development, other developmental areas or sensory deficits impact a child's ability to be ready for school. Less than 50% of these children are identified as having a problem before they start school and the opportunities for early intervention have been missed. The U.S. Department of Education regulates the early intervention program under Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). This program provides screening, evaluation and intervention services for infants and toddlers with developmental delays and disabilities and their families. Part C is administered by states that serves infants and toddlers through age 2 with developmental delays or who have diagnosed physical or mental conditions with high probabilities of resulting in developmental delays. However, many children are not Part C eligible initially and have delays that may not be identified.

Developmental screening administrative services funded by FTF are multi-tiered. They include community awareness programs to screen children for developmental delays, identification of children in child care centers with possible delays, and home visitation program staff who have identified children with possible delays. Screening for developmental delays or sensory deficits is not diagnostic and should not be represented as definitive. Screening leads to a referral for a diagnostic assessment by a child's health care providers to determine if there is an actual delay and to plan for treatment through state agencies (AzEIP, school districts, Children's Rehabilitative Services) or private organizations that provide these specific services.

Screening is comprehensive in that it includes a review of children's development in the cognitive, communication, physical development, sensory deficits, social-emotional and adaptive domains.

The results of the screening process can lead to further screening and diagnostic testing and early interventions.

There are a number of avenues that can facilitate basic screening and identification of children with potential developmental delays or sensory deficits:

- Quality First Child Care Health Consultants (CCHC)
- Home visitation programs staffed by nurses or trained staff – referrals to appropriate resources if screening cannot occur during home visit.
- Community based screening including mobile screening vans

Although developmental and sensory screening is merged together, awardees can be selected separately. The intent is to have screening be a more comprehensive effort.

II. Implementation Standards

All developmental or sensory screening administration includes the following standards:

Screening services should include the following:

- Discussion of concerns with parent and obtain parental consent for screening.
- Standard training for anyone who is conducting a screening on how to use screening instruments or equipment.
- Administration of age appropriate developmental screening instrument or age appropriate sensory testing equipment.
- Discussion of results of screening with parents.
- Plan for sequential screening if the child's response indicates follow up rather than a referral (could have been an off day, sick child with marginal results).
- Make appropriate referrals to AzEIP, local schools, health care providers, behavioral health professionals, or other community resources for a diagnostic evaluation if results warrant.
- Follow up with families about the result of the referral process and findings. Determine if they obtained an additional screening and what the next steps are for the child.

Screening Locations:

- While screening can occur in wide variety of settings, screenings that are conducted in environments where families maintain ongoing connections (as part of a medical home or child care centers) are preferred. The administration of screening at such locations will facilitate the follow up process, and ensure that routine screenings occur at recommended intervals.
- Screenings should occur in a quiet, well-lighted, non-distracting environment.
- Screenings optimally should occur in settings that are closely aligned to a child's natural environment (for example: where children typically are such as a home or child care center or other location with which the child has familiarity and is comfortable).

Developmental Screening Administration Standards:

Screening Tools

- Age appropriate and standardized screening tools and equipment should be used. Also, the most reliable and appropriate options for screening should be used to:
 - Ensure that the cognitive and motor skills being assessed appropriately match the age of the child.
 - Ensure that screening tools are comprehensive and assess children in all developmental domains: cognition, communication, physical, social-emotional, and adaptive.
- Developmental assessment instruments must have validity and a .80 reliability level.

Suggested developmental assessment tools for screening children birth-age three

- a. PEDS (Parents Evaluation of Developmental Status): resources found in Appendix
- b. Ages and Stages Questionnaires: link is in reference section, online screening can be considered
- c. Ages and Stages Questionnaire: Social Emotional Scale (this tool needs to be supplemented by another tool to ensure all areas of development are covered)

Conducting Screening

- Parent or guardian consent to screening is required before screening can occur.
- The parent is actively involved in the screening process.
- Screening must occur in the child and family's primary language.
- Screenings should include additional confirmatory information (parent input, observations, etc.).
- A parent or other designated caretaker is present for all screening procedures conducted through home visitation or mobile screening activities.
- Parents receive written feedback from the screening as well as a written referral for additional screening and diagnostic services if necessary.

Sensory Screening Administration Standards

Screening Tools

- Screening instruments should be sensitive enough to identify problems, and specific enough to prevent unacceptable over-referrals.
- Screening tools should be designed to capture and hold a child's interest at an age appropriate level while minimizing distraction from other stimuli.
- Screening tools used must be age appropriate, meeting the cognitive and motor skills required for participation.
- Screening tools should be designed to actively engage a young child, giving the tester the opportunity to observe and interact with the child during the screening process.
- Screening tools must be free from bias and appropriate to the population on which they are used.

Conducting Screening

Hearing

- Hearing screening should be performed using age appropriate, standardized screening tools, equipment and/or assessments.
- Hearing screenings require a quiet environment with ambient noise levels on average of less than 50 dBSPL. Although the space requirement is minimal, it is important that the hearing screenings be conducted in a room separate from the rest of the screening.
- Audiometers, if used, should be equipped with a full headset (two earphones), while audiometers equipped with only one earphone utilizing a handled method should be avoided.
- Hearing screeners should have additional, child friendly manipulatives available to help elicit results beyond the use of hardware and charts.
- All devices to test hearing shall have periodic testing for accuracy and proper functioning and include any required certificates stating that these standards have been met.

Vision

- Vision screening would be performed using age appropriate, standardized screening tools and/or assessments.
- Vision screenings should be conducted in areas that have minimal distraction, are well lighted, and have space appropriate for the test being used.
- Vision screeners should have additional, child friendly manipulatives available to help elicit results beyond the use of hardware and charts.

III. Training and Qualifications Standards

Conducting developmental screening requires specific education and skills.

- Educational level: minimum of a bachelor's degree or certification in child development, nursing, early childhood education, child and family studies, or closely related field is required.
- All individuals conducting developmental screening will obtain and maintain certification and/ or required training on all of the chosen methods and tools used in screening activities and attend re-certification or additional training courses as required by the tool, the instrument developers, and as it is determined necessary through supervision.
- Personnel, who do not meet the required education level or are newly trained in developmental screening activities, may administer developmental screening under the direct supervision of an individual who does meet the training and qualifications standards until it can be documented that the person conducting screening can do so in a reliable manner. This level of supervision is above and beyond the regular supervision activities required in the First Things First Home Visitation or other Standards of Practice. The supervisor will participate with the home visitor or program specialist in conducting screenings and review all completed screening instruments until the home visitor or program specialist is able to consistently conduct screening in a reliable manner. This can be documented in staff's personnel file and family files.

- Areas of knowledge and competencies must be demonstrated in:
 - Typical and atypical child development
 - Routines based interviewing practices (see <http://www.siskin.org/www/docs/112.190/>)
 - Objective child observation
 - Use of appropriate screening tools for young children
- Individuals conducting screening will participate in continuing education to remain current and update skills and knowledge regarding developmental screening procedures and child development to meet the requirements of this scope of work.

Conducting sensory screening requires specific education, equipment and skills.

- Educational level: minimum of a bachelor's degree or certification in hearing or vision screening as well as certification in the use of the equipment used for screening.
- All individuals conducting sensory screening will obtain and maintain certification and/ or required training on all of the chosen equipment and tools used in screening activities and attend re-certification or additional training courses as required and as it is determined necessary through supervision.
- Personnel, who do not meet the required education level or are newly trained in sensory screening activities, may administer screening under the direct supervision of an individual who does meet the training and qualifications standards until it can be documented that the person conducting screening can do so in a reliable manner.
 - This level of supervision is above and beyond the regular supervision activities required in the First Things First Home Visitation or other Standards of Practice. The supervisor will participate with the home visitor or program specialist in conducting screenings and review all completed abnormal or marginal screening results given to families.

IV. Cultural Competencies

Programs will also implement the following best practices and standards related to Cultural Competencies:

- To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members and program participants effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner. Early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers should ensure that staff and participants at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Early childhood practitioners/early childhood service providers should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement to ensure that services are delivered in a manner that is consistent with the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services and/or the National Recommendations on Cultural and Linguistic Competence for the National Association for the Education of Young Children.”

<http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/linguistic>

- Service providers should understand individual Tribes/Nations are distinct and separate communities from other Tribes/Nations and their governmental systems and structures are not reflective of each other. Services to Tribal communities and on reservations must be provided in a manner compatible with the Tribe's/Nation's cultural beliefs and practices, to include the preferred language of the community. Services must also be provided in accordance with the Tribe's/Nation's laws, policies and procedures. The effectiveness of services is directly related to the provider's consideration of the beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation.
- Service providers can obtain information about providing services on tribal lands from a variety of sources. These include the FTF Regional Coordinator, Regional Council members, tribal websites and publications, as well as official representatives of the Tribe/Nation such as the governing body, standing committees and authorized departments.
- It is highly recommended that service providers seek guidance from one or more of these sources before initiating services on reservations. Failure to do so could result in contraventions of cultural beliefs, Tribal laws or sovereignty.
- The ideal applicant will demonstrate their ability to operate within these parameters through prior experience working with Tribes/Nations, demonstrating that staff are culturally competent, partnerships with agencies serving Native American families, knowledge of cultural beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation or a combination of these elements.
- Related to data collection, evaluation or research activities:
 - In the United States, Native American Tribes are considered autonomous nations with all of the rights and responsibilities of a nation. Understanding this, Native American Tribes are charged with protecting the health and safety of their people. To this end, Tribes have full ownership over any data collected within their reservation boundaries. This means that Tribes can allow or not allow any program to collect data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities on the reservation.
 - Any grantee implementing programs in tribal communities must have official tribal permission to collect and utilize sensitive data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities. Such data can include but not be limited to:
 - Morbidity and mortality among children members of their communities
 - Information regarding child safety and welfare
 - Information regarding children in foster care
 - Infectious and chronic disease information among members of their communities
 - BMI and healthy weight information beginning at age 2 years and each year after that

Frequently asked questions regarding PEDS TOOL

1. What is the PEDS Tool?

- a. PEDS Tool is Parents' Evaluation of Developmental Status. PEDS is a standardized tool to detect and address developmental and behavioral problems.

2. Why PEDS?

- a. PEDS was adopted by AHCCCS after being chosen as the preferred tool for developmental screening by the Governor's School Readiness Board Health Implementation Team in conjunction with the Arizona Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AzAAP). The tool is easy to administer and score and provides an on-going record of screenings.

3. Who should be screened using the PEDS Tool?

- a. Every child needs to have a developmental screening as part of the EPSDT visit. All children born after 1/1/06 and reported as having been in the Nursery Intensive Care Unit (NICU) after birth should be screened using the PEDS Tool during their EPSDT visit.

4. What does this mean to me as a provider?

- a. Providers must order hard copies of the PEDS tools for use in the office. These can be obtained on line at www.pedstest.com or www.forepath.com. Please be aware that making photocopies of the PEDS tools is a violation of copyright law. The cost of ordering the PEDS forms considered when developing the reimbursement rates.

5. Where can I obtain the training?

- a. Training can easily be accessed through the AzAAP webpage (www.azaap.org). Providers can complete the training on line. After the completion, each provider must notify Provider Services so their file can be updated.

Exhibit C

First Things First Home Visitation Child Protective Services Policy

FTF Goal: FTF will coordinate and integrate with existing education and information systems to expand families' access to high quality, diverse and relevant information and resources to support their child's optimal development.

FTF Statewide Strategic Direction: Collaborate with family support and education programs to expand services to include the development, enhancement, or implementation of home visiting programs. FTF will not assume the State of Arizona's nor Arizona's Federally recognized Tribe's responsibilities to provide family preservation or family reunification services for families involved with Child Protective Services.

1. If a family* who has an open Child Protective Services' (CPS) case is referred to a First Things First funded home visitation program, the family may be accepted for services if:
 - the CPS case plan is for the case to close within the next 3 months; and
 - the CPS case plan goal is reunification of the family; and
 - the home visitation program has an opening/capacity to serve the family; and
 - the family meets the home visitation program's eligibility requirements; and
 - the family voluntarily accepts services which are not court ordered.
2. If a family who is receiving services from a First Things First funded home visitation program is referred to CPS and CPS opens the family's case, the home visitation provider will, on a case by case basis, determine if continued services are appropriate, or if the level of services required is outside of their scope of service provision. FTF's priority is to provide continuity of care and ensure effective service provision. If the home visitation provider is unable to continue service provision, they will coordinate the transition to a provider identified by CPS.

In the two scenarios described above, the First Things First home visitation provider is encouraged to attempt to participate in a case plan staffing or Team Decision-Making meeting (Child Protective Services' case manager, the First Things First funded home visitation program staff, the family and other service providers) to ensure that a case plan is in place to most effectively meet the needs of the family. Family assessment, case plan development and service coordination is critical to effective service provision. If a grantee is currently providing FTF funded Home Visitation services to a family with an open CPS case when this policy is implemented, the services will be grandfathered in and the grantee will continue to provide services as appropriate.

* Family includes biological parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings, adoptive parents, guardians or others, including extended Indian family members, defined by law or custom of the Tribe, who provide primary care of a child within a household. This does not include foster families.

First Things First Target Service Unit Information Home Visitation

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number).

A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. Target Service Number represents the number of units (e.g., target population) proposed to be served or number of products/services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For example, for the FTF strategy Home Visitation the FTF Unit of Service is “number of families served” and a Target Service Number of 50 represents the number of families the program proposes to serve during the contract period. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

For Home Visitation, the Unit of Service is: Number of families served

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Number of families served should reflect the total number of families proposed to receive home visiting services for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year). This number should reflect a total (aggregate) count of all families to receive services, including current caseload and potential enrollment within the contract period.

Performance Measures

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e., Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g., serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g. providing scholarships).

For Home Visitation, the performance measures are:

Number of families served/proposed service number

Home visitor caseload

Family attrition

Number of families receiving referrals for health insurance enrollment

Number of referrals for community based services given to participating families

Number of children receiving home visiting services

Number of children receiving developmental screening

Numbers of children receiving referrals for follow up services

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number).

A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

For Developmental and Sensory Screening, the Units of Service are:

Number of children screened for developmental delays
Number of children receiving vision screening
Number of children receiving hearing screening

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Number of children screened for developmental delays should reflect the total number of children receiving screening for developmental delays for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and may be a duplicated count since one child may receive multiple developmental delay screenings within a contract period.

Number of children receiving vision screening should reflect the total number of children receiving vision screening for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and may be a duplicated count since one child may receive multiple vision screenings within a contract period.

Number of children receiving hearing screening should reflect the total number of children receiving hearing screening for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and may be a duplicated count since one child may receive multiple hearing screenings within a contract period.

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e., Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g., serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g., providing scholarships).

First Things First - Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board Data Security Guidelines and Requirements for Collaborators

BACKGROUND:

The purpose of First Things First is to aid in the creation of a system that offers opportunities and supports for families and communities in the development of all children so they can grow up healthy and ready to succeed. Our work is accountable and transparent to decision-makers and the citizens of Arizona. Collaboration and direct funding of grantees to undertake work on behalf of the children and families of Arizona is fundamental to the purpose and mission of FTF. Regular submission of data related to funded work is an important part of ensuring accountability and maximum positive impact for young children.

Data Security Guidelines for Data Submission to FTF

The Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board (First Thing First - FTF) will ensure that resources allocated have maximum impact for the benefit of children and families. To ensure this accountability, FTF will establish data reporting requirements for all state and regional grantees. All funded providers will regularly submit programmatic and financial reports as identified in the FTF reporting requirements.

FTF data submissions are classified in one of three levels:

- Public data
- Limited distribution data
- Confidential data

The majority of FTF reporting submissions are completed through the FTF Partner and Grants Management System (PGMS). Subsequent to the award of a FTF contract, the grantee will receive general training on login and navigation within the PGMS system. With this login the grantee will be able to manage their contract information. An additional training on strategy-specific data submission requirements will also be conducted. During that training the grantee will be informed on submission of data reporting requirements through PGMS. All data submitted through PGMS is public data or limited distribution data. Because PGMS is located in a secure extranet environment, grantees using PGMS for data submission are not required to undertake additional security measures related to their data submission above those identified in the general and data submission orientations (password and login security, guidelines for upload of narrative and other reports).

A small group of grantees submit data requirements, through agreement between the grantee and FTF, directly through the FTF extranet, rather than a PGMS web-based entry form. These data are likely to contain limited distribution data and must follow the following protocols. Data structure agreement, Login, ftp, revision request. Grantees that submit data through the FTF extranet must ensure that limited distribution data may not be intercepted or viewed at any time by parties other than the grantee and FTF and that throughout the reporting and submission process the data are secured.

Any grantee submitting data identified as confidential must file a formal data security policy with FTF. Confidential data will not be a part of standard data submission requirements. Grantee general orientation and data reporting orientation will identify data requirements as public data, limited distribution data, and/or confidential data.

Data Security Guidelines for Grantee Maintenance of Data

In order to submit data to FTF in fulfillment of reporting requirements, grantees must keep all data collected for their program(s) within their system (database) or hardcopies. While FTF data submissions are generally aggregated and contain no individually identifying information, grantee data is likely to contain highly sensitive information on individuals, their education and their health. These guidelines and requirements are for the maintenance of those data.

All grantees must have a data security policy in force which identifies how the organization ensures that data is protected in all its forms, during all phases of its life cycle, from inappropriate access, use, modification, disclosure, or destruction.

All grantees subject to HIPAA, FERPA, GITA, or other data regulation, are required to submit and maintain those approvals for all data. If HIPAA, FERPA or other data regulation requires that participating individuals give consent to data collection on their person and if in the course of regular data submissions to FTF such data will be provided to FTF, submission of personal data to FTF must be reflected in all data regulation documents.
